

Ms. Sartori graduated with a degree in Law at the University of Milan in 1995.

Lawyer registered with the Milan Register in 1999.

She deals with assistance and advice in favor of Italian and foreign industrial groups and institutional investors in the negotiation of ordinary and extraordinary corporate transactions (M & A, corporate reorganizations, private equity transactions) and in the drafting of the related acquisition, investment, financing and shareholders.

Negotiation and drafting of national and international commercial contracts.

She carries out her professional activity at the Studio Cornelli Gabelli e Associati.

Member of control bodies of listed and unlisted companies.

She is an alternate auditor of SAES Getters S.p.A. from 2018.